

System of assessment at Budapest University of Technology and Economics (BME)

BME grading		ECTS grading	percentage in all students' performance
5	excellent, very good	A, B	>80%
4	good	C	71 – 80%
3	satisfactory	D	61 – 70%
2	sufficient, pass	E	50 – 60%
1	fail	FX, F	< 50%

according to subsection (5), Section 128 of BME Code of Studies

ECTS credits

According to subsection (24), Section 108 of the Hungarian Higher Education Act, 1 ECTS credit corresponds to student workload of 30 hours.

Recommended student workload

30 credits/term according to subsection (1), Section 54 of the 87/2015. (IV.9.) Hungarian Governmental Decree